These awards will be presented to Lead Line exhibitors, Walk-Only exhibitors and Riders with Special Needs exhibitors at each Saturday show; these contestants may ride in either western or english tack/attire. This memorial award is in honor of the late Ginny Nokes, a well-known and beloved professional horsewoman who was involved in several different breed disciplines throughout the state of Texas and beyond, mentoring hundreds of youth and adults in her career, including a few of our own CAQHA Board Members. Ginny remained active and vibrant late in life, still teaching into her 90's and encouraging people to learn from the horse. Ginny now rides her favorite steeds across the grassy fields of heaven. The Capitol Area Quarter Horse Association is honored to carry on her mission of encouraging young riders!
